PRESS RELEASE

Police Corps RONN (Switzerland) Introduces STEYR AUG as Support Rifle – A Swiss First

Setting a new benchmark in Swiss law enforcement equipment, the Police Corps RONN has become the first police unit in Switzerland to adopt the esteemed STEYR AUG as its official support rifle. This landmark decision highlights the Police Corps RONN's commitment to modernization, efficiency, and top-tier quality in its operational capabilities.

About the STEYR AUG Support Rifle:

The STEYR AUG, globally renowned with over four decades of service, is celebrated for its reliability, precision, and modular design. Its ergonomic layout and versatile configuration options make it an ideal choice for law enforcement, where speed, safety, and adaptability are paramount.

Innovative Step by Police Corps RONN:

"The adoption of the STEYR AUG represents a significant stride in our ongoing efforts to keep our equipment at the cutting edge and provide our officers with the best tools for the job," stated the Chief of Police Corps RONN. "We are confident that the STEYR AUG will enhance our operational effectiveness and efficiency in fulfilling our public safety mission."
